

Land Loser Quota (LLQ)

Land Loser means a person whose land has been acquired by the Government for public interest and who possesses a proper certificate in this regard.

- 2% of total seats in all Government and Government Sponsored Polytechnics shall be kept reserved for the candidates of Land Loser Category.
- LLQ seats are reserved for those candidates whose parent or legal guardian (for orphans) had to lose / donate land for any Government project in the state. Candidates must possess related original document(s) in the name of their parents/legal guardians issued by the competent authority of the Government (Block Land & Land Reforms Officer (BL&LRO) / BDO / SDO / First Class Magistrate / Group-A Gazetted Officer of the State of West Bengal) at the time of admission. Inability to produce original LLQ certificate at the time of admission will lead to cancellation of the allotted seat.
- LLQ seats shall be filled-up through counseling. In case of non-availability of sufficient number of candidates in LLQ, remaining vacant seats will be converted to General category seats.
- LLQ is not applicable for the candidates of the states other than West Bengal.
- Candidates who furnished 'Yes' at the time of filling-up of application form of JEXPO-2018 in respect of LLQ quota without knowing the exact meaning of the same, can change it (corrected as 'No') during registration in web portal, but the reverse is not allowed. Information received finally in the portal will be considered during seat allotment.
- It is reiterated that LLQ certificate in the name of Grandfather, Grandmother, Uncle or anybody else will not be valid to avail a seat under LLQ.
