

Mahindra Pride Classroom

West Bengal

Balloon Activity:

In this activity students are given with a balloon and a pin and instructed to blow their balloon and tie it securely and hold it above their head.

They get 1 minute from the time Trainer says 'Go!' At the end of 1 minute, the Students who still have their balloon intact and raised above their heads, will be the winners.

Outcome:

1. Students will go berserk and try to burst each other's balloons while trying to save theirs.
2. Students will all hold their balloons above their heads

If it is the first option, since the team did not win, no one wins, which means no prizes for anyone.

If it is the second option, then they have understood what it means to be a team.

Wall of Fame:

This is the photograph of Mahindra Pride Classroom where students are showing enthusiasm and their full participation during the session.

Back wall is called Wall of Fame, students feel proud to put their creative work in the form of posters, students feel motivated by seeing their work on wall of fame.

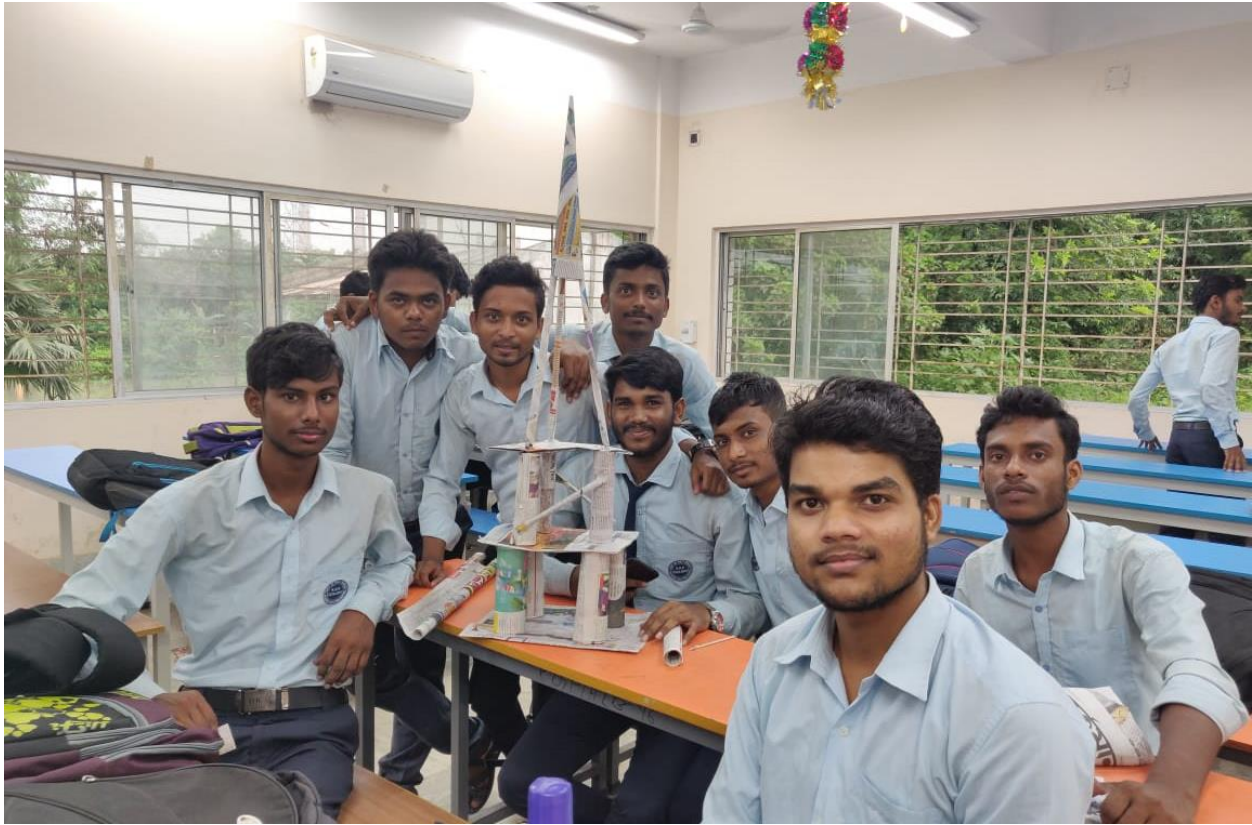

Induction:

This is the first session, where Trainer interacts with the students.

Trainer gives a brief information about the Organisation and the opportunities of Mahindra Pride Classroom Training, addresses students queries to increase comfort level and feeling of belonging.

On this note trainer creates a positive atmosphere and sets an intention for 40 hours Mahindra Pride Classroom training.

Paper Tower Activity:

This activity is part of Teamwork session, where students are provided with 4 full newspapers, a roll of cello tape and a packet of sketch pens.

Students are instructed to work as a team and build a tallest paper tower – the team that builds the tallest tower and finishes on time will be the winner. If there is a tie, then the one that is more attractive will win.

Outcome:

From this activity Students learn to work as a team and finish the task on time.

In this activity students participate with lot of enthusiasm and come up with creative and innovative ideas.

Group Photographs:

Part of the journey is the end, after successful completion of 40 hours Mahindra Pride Classroom training.

Students and Trainer take a Group Photograph on the final day of training with Mahindra Pride Classroom banner in the college premises.

Celebrating Success:

Journey towards success starts starts with a single step, we celebrate the moment of accomplishment, all the dedication which the students as well as trainer put during the training.

As a token of acknowledgement we felicitate Students with Mahindra Pride Classroom Certificates.

On a note that it's not the end but the beginning we finish the ceremony.

Team Work:

Candidates are indulged in a team work and trying their level best to make a best poster for their Team (They all are working together to achieve the same goal) .

After making poster students are giving presentation in front of their classmates and trainers about the Team work.

Outcome:

Students get to know the difference between Group and Team and its importance and they come up with full of confidence.
